PRAXIS
Speech-Language Pathology
2010-11: 31 out of 30 students passed, 100%
2009-10: 28 out of 28 students passed, 100%
2008-09: 8 out of 8 students passed, 100%

Audiology
2010-11: 1 out of 1 students passes, 100%
2009-10: 4 out of 4 students passed, 100%
2008-09: 5 out of 5 students passed, 100%

During the last three academic years, an average of 100% of speech-language pathology and audiology students passed the PRAXIS exam. See http://www.asha.org/students/praxis/ for information from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association about PRAXIS.

Program Completion Rates
Speech-Language Pathology
2010-11: 28 out of 29 students completed the program on time, 96%
2009-10: 31 out of 33 students completed the program on time, 94%
2008-09: 21 out of 23 students completed the program on time, 92%

Audiology
2010-11: 5 out of 5 students completed the program on time, 100%
2009-10: 6 out of 7 students completed the program on time, 85%
2008-09: 10 out of 10 students completed the program on time, 100%

During the last three academic years, an average of 94% of students who initiated studies in our graduate professional degrees completed their ASHA required education within the expected time frame in Speech-Language-Hearing Sciences (Speech-Language Pathology track) or the Au.D. in Audiology.

Employment Rates*
Speech-Language Pathology
2010-11: 27 out of 27 students employed, 100%
2009-10: 34 out of 34 students employed, 100%
2008-09: 21 out of 21 students employed, 100%

Audiology
2010-11: 5 out of 5 students employed, 100%
2009-10: 7 out of 7 students employed, 100%
2008-09: 10 out of 10 students employed, 100%

During the last three academic years, 100% of speech-language pathology and 100% of audiology students enrolled in our graduate professional degrees have secured employment within one year of graduation.

*Data collected informally from students
Includes data for graduates pursuing private practice